Sir Király Csaba Ph.D.
Ordo Hungariae Nagymestere
részére

2014. szeptember 9.

Tisztelt Nagymester úr!

A Jeruzsálemi Szent János Szuverén Máltai Lovagrend Autonóm Perjelségek Szövetsége (KMFAP) Nagymestere, H.M.E.H. Prince José nevében és teljes egyetértésével – figyelembe véve az Ordo Hungariae (Magyar Rend) utóbbi időben bekövetkezett politikai jobbratolódását, az egyre gyakoribb antiszemita és más kisebbségekkel szembeni negatív megnyilvánulásait, a tolerancia egyre nagyobb hiányát, továbbá a napi gyakorlatban tapasztalt rosszindulatú áskálódások, mesterségesen gerjesztett konfliktusok, és az együttműködés helyét felváltó érthetetlen rivalizálás miatt – úgy döntöttünk, hogy eljött az idő az Ordo Hungariae Rend KMFAP szövetségén belüli „Társult Tagság” viszonyának mai naptól való megszüntetésére.

Az Ordo Hungariae jelenlegi politikája és működése nem egyeztethető össze a KMFAP Alkotmányában lefektetett elvekkel.

Kérem döntésünk szíves tudomásulvételét!

Egyúttal lemondok az Ordo Hungariae Tiszteletbeli Nagykancellári címemről.

Mellékelem H.M.E.H. Prince José Nagymester úr a döntéssel kapcsolatban nekem írt levelét.

Sok sikert kívánok az Ordo Hungariae Rend további fejlődéséhez.

Popper György, GCKC
Lieutenant General

Dear George,

In fact you have told me before about the most regrettable positions that Csaba Király has been taking lately.

When I say regrettable it is because, as a good Christian, I have in mind and I do not forget the period when I have first met Csaba Király and he was at the time in a very difficult and fragile economic situation.

As a good Christian I still remember that at the time he was already a right wing man, but he was respectful to all and I remember also that a good and noble Jew – named George Popper – helped him as much as he could, and I remember how nice to him was a Gipsy called Zoltán Mága... in fact racism and anti-Semitism only exists when one feels above the others (although racism takes one much below the others), but it does not exist when one extreme right militant is in need...

As a good Christian I also remember the way how an honourable Jew – true friend of Csaba – named George Popper helped him to re-create, organize, and give life and credibility to Ordo Hungariae, and that if this Order exists today is thanks to that remarkable Jew named George Popper and not to an extreme right militant named Csaba Király.

As a good Christian I do remember the fact that a Jew, named Popper, opened the doors of his house to a certain Csaba, not to receive him as a guest but a friend, and gave him the bed of his son to sleep in.

As a good Christian I remember that Saint Pope John XXIII reset Catholic-Jewish relations in the 1960s, seeking to reconcile the grievances of the past, in which Catholics had treated Jews, less like beloved brothers and more like strangers – or worse, as enemies. As a good Christian I also remember that the Catholic Church approved that outreach in 1965 at the Second Vatican Council with the document Nostra Aetate, and I also remember that Popes Paul VI, Saint John Paul II and Benedict XVI all continued efforts to deepen those relations.

As a good Christian I also remember that Pope Francis also proclaimed “a Christian cannot be anti-Semitic,” emphasizing how much Jews and Catholics have a “common root” and share much as a consequence.

This is only a small part of what I remember, and, as a good Christian I try not to forget, and I say as a good Christian because I never forget that all the persecutions and killings inflicted in the past, as well in the present, to the Christians have been done by extremist people (from Emperor Nero to the Inquisition, from Stalin to the new Arab terrorists).

As a good Christian I can not forget ingratitude and intolerance, but I can not forgive it also, because only God can forgive, not me...

I always told you that there is only one thing that I am intolerant about: it is Intolerance.
I have always told you that there is only one thing that I am fundamentalist about: it is about Human rights and Human Freedom.

As a good Christian I did not change..... and for this reason I see no reason or motive for having an extreme right Order as a member of the Federation (KMFAP), since they represent all that we refuse, but I strongly recommend that Csaba Király and "his" Ordo Hungariae try to join the SMOM instead (if they accept them...).

The day we forget our principles we will stop existing as a Sovereign Order and we will be nothing but a bunch of scum, and that I REFUSE.

I also refuse to meet Csaba Király, for two reasons:

1- To receive him as Grand Master would be to give to him a consideration and a recognition that he never had nor deserves, and to bring him to my level, or it would be for me to descend to his level. To bring him to my level I refuse, because I have never promoted anybody who does not have the merit for a promotion, and to descend to his level I refuse because I was elected by my fellow Knights to stay in my position and to defend it and our principles.

2- To receive Csaba Király to discuss with him relations between KMFAP and OH would be silly because those relations are now and have always been discussed and agreed between Csaba and YOU in your capacity as Lieutenant General, and Grand Prior of the Hungarian Langue. For me to interfere now, would be to offend your capability and your true skills to do your job in YOUR jurisdiction. I respect and admire you too much, to even consider doing that, therefore a meeting is out of question.

I think I was clear and you can, if you want, forward this email to Csaba.

Regards

His Eminent Highness Jose, Prince
Grand Master and Head of the State
